Introduction

René Civile, IT Change, Release, Chain and Crisis manager, inventor/creator of the Civile Matrix®™ and owner of NumoQuest®™ and NumoQuest®™ Profiler, has put the laws of physics steering and managing Talent into visible and instant usable perspective.

Where many programs basically are copies of copies, of hypes, repainted, rearranged, only very few understand the 33 laws of physics steering all. In basic steps the individual born latencies are presented, making each person utter unique. From there simple steps toward own personal capabilities will do the rest.

'There is nothing you have to learn what is not already in you so why waste energy teaching yourself things that aren't you? The moment you put all focus and energy on the REAL YOU, the faster you'll become member of YOUR 1% League. It really is as simple as that.... ' René Civile 1998

The Edge Programme is to give you instant and usable advance over all these copies of copies or hypes. All you have to do is follow YOU. And that requires no new skills, often no financial effort, just the focus and energy.

"Any choice YOU make perfectly fine to me. Either you gain edge or dismiss it, Edge doesn't care. It is non-judgemental, A-political, Commercially free. All you do is accept you with all forcefull and successful elements you're born with. There is nothing more to it."

René Civile, 1997

There are Universal Principles where of many aren't aware of. Science hasn't even come to an explanation. Regardless, these laws of physics are omnipotent present and working. In anything, in anybody. Many using these ancient and FREE Universal Principles, in financial schemes, think of the Secret or Law of Attraction, or created copies of copies.

Bottom line, the 33 Universal Principles are omnipotent and free for all. We explain how these work in Simplest of terms.

One of these great and strong principles

95% 4% 1%

Every individual has natural born Talents. One discovers it quite early in life, others apparently can't even find theirs in an entire lifetime. Yet, many seem they have ways to 'see' or 'assess' what kind of talent the other has.

The odd thing?

95% of the people are 'happy' in some sort of way around their age 27 to 30. Where one is labelled adult, before that age one only still is walking around, seeking, trying, failing, getting up finally succeeding somewhat.

4% have a natural clear Talent into a certain direction in life they are pursuing. In their immediate slipstream many coming of that 95% want to be associated with these 4%. Clamping and clinging to the ways of life and manners these 4% pose and live. Others of that 95% are fan or really granting these 4% their successes. Then there always will be those opportunists of commercial spirit wanting to make money out of the successes of these 4%, in any thinkable (commercial) way.

The 1%

The 1%-ers, Steven Jobs, Eckart Wintzens, Michael Schumachers, Mother Therasas, Babe Ruths, Nelson Mandelas, Johan Cruijffs, Michael Jacksons, Sir Richard Bransons.....

These are above the 96% and many are trying to find what it is that made them what they are. Charismatic, Above All, Barely Untouchable. Is spirit of time an essence? Do they have followed a certain course or path in life? Libraries are filled about these 1%. From any thinkable angle. The bottom line however, is less complicated, incomprehensible, compared to all those schemes, formulas, theories or sole commercial driven methods.

Well, here it is, for free. For the universal principles still are there, working, omnipotent. They are there for any one ready to take charge of..... whatever you want yourself to take charge of.

So here it is!

They Know, instead of believe...

That 1%-er doesn't persé have 'a believe', 'a religion' nor 'spiritual conviction', that can be marked essential for themselves. The way that a 1%-er thinks is universal and not limited to... They Know that the way they are 'seeing' is 'Their Way'. They don't let themselves be distracted on their individual roads they walk, knowing that succeeding is just a matter of trial and error. They also Know that the 1% goal isn't goal on itself, it's only their individual direction or point of focus. Mind you, if your objective is to become member of the 1%, probably you shall succeed. Personal conviction is the key here.

Abolish Judgement

They have 'a way' of looking at people, things, world, road, goals and objectives. Never being judgmental nor in envy. They regard each and every person as an unique individual without reservation. They understand that personal talent, in people, is obvious, they also know that others still may need to 'find their place' in their lives. 1%-ers just regard these as fact of life. You don't have to tell them, they simply Know.

Distraction

For a 1%-er there is only one direction by Heart, Head and Breathing. They come to a state of excitement in what they do and they also truly grant that to anyone in the world. Sure, they also encountered failure, though not naming it as such. The thing is they weren't always bothered by that. They simply realized that a certain way, fashion or manner, wasn't working on that particular moment for them. Realizing such they moved on. Onward to their vision, their personal objective(s).

No matter what others see, think, say, believe, or have as opinion, the set path is 'The Path' for them. It is as simple as that.

Seize Chance and Momentum

The 1%er recognise and seize Chance and Momentum when it arrives. Small or large. Regardless how Chance and Momentum arrives, in what person, shape or form, the 1%-er accepts such thankfully and put it to constructive and good use. Chance and Momentum is also a major contributor for them in success as towards others on that path. That is a key issue. The balance between receiving and giving. There were the Steve Jobs or Sir Richard Bransons successes in the world of commercial enterprises, the world of Mother Teresa is on the other hand, the level of social involvement and charity without the commerciality. Babe Ruth, Johan Crujiff and Michael Schumacher in sports.

Yet all they share is the determination and level of 'Knowing' that their personal believe and conviction in themselves, and objectives are on the same universal level, finance never was the initial motivator. Merely a vehicle to get 'There'.

Financial gain

In spite of what many like to pursuit, like what is described like in, 'The American Dream', or whatever equivalent or schemes, it is only regarded as a vehicle or contributor on the path of the 1%-er not the immediate initial objective on itself.

The peculiar thing here is that once one knows their own 'personal path in life', there isn't a particular priority here mentioned else than just focus on 'Objective' and walking that individual path with a lots of Energy and Compassion. This compared to today's world of distraction, persuasion, discrimination and judgement, it makes one even wondering more how odd yet great strong and omnipotent this universal law is.

Asking them individually what their personal objectives and believes have been prior their successes, they all and each of them will tell you that before any success, many failure also have been a part of the road. The only true difference? They 'KNOW' which way to go and sometimes have to overcome hurdle or make a detour. They seldom let others be a key factor or be distracted from their Knowing and their Objective. Sometimes ad great personal and private cost.

Commercial driven schemes

There are an abundance of commercial schemes and so called courses letting you believe that in order to achieve what people like Bill Gates, Adele, Nadal, Agatha Christie or Liam Neeson achieved in their individual careers, could be thought and learned like 'a course'. The emphasis here is YOU pay up first. First they make you WANT and CRAVE before 'the catch' is revealed, then they let you believe that you can do the same as they.

The Big Flaw...?!?

The Big Flaw here is the simple conclusion and realization that those selling and telling you all this, have no true knowledge of how this universal and free law works. So how can they tell you? Their objectives simply are commercial and financial driven. No judgement here but there's no added value in here for you. Unless you feel compelled to pay for something that's entirely free. If so, you just do that.

Truly Knowing Who You Are

They can't tell you Whom YOU are. In order to have this universal law work, you have to know WHO you are and simply be content with that. Forget the rest of the world, their opinions, commercials, the commercial driven schemes, judgements, fashion or whatever. Find out who you really are by nature.

Act

Treat successful people as what is. Their success, not yours. The thing here is that you are not them, yet you may accomplish and reach levels as they have reached. Yet, they are not you, not in your shoes, not walking your path. Don't strive to be the same as someone else. You are not. You are you, so Act accordingly. It also means that if you know who you truly are, you will do the things fitting your character, your personality. You also will Act. You will act according YOU!

Abandon Distraction

Don't bother with oppressing opinion, judgment, sales schemes, and influences of others upon your personal vision, objective, desires. They will distract you from opening YOUR door to your True Personal Potential.

There are many reasons for others wanting to distract you. They want to sell you something, they want you to join their club, they don't want you to improve yourself and grow to you full personal potential. And they will use all kinds of ways and schemes to let you believe something entirely else than your personal objectives in life.

KNOWING

There is a world of difference between believing and KNOWING. There is nothing wrong believing in 'anything'. Have a good look to that aspect 'believing'. How much effort and time and energy does that take from you to get to a certain 'stage' or 'level' of believing? You have to admit, depending on what you do believe in, it will cost you a lot.

Try to put all that in KNOWING your True Personal Potential. For when you know that 'IT' is so, you don't have to bother believing, put time, effort and energy whether is true or false. And THAT is the difference between you and all these great names. They KNOW their True and Personal Potential and they go their own path.

We can help you with the KNOWING. The rest? Just a matter of 'Doing'. There basically is nothing more to it...

Good luck in your any (commercial) endeavours you are pursuing
